with a copy of the said order and direct him to apply in person to the Treasury at which payment of the gratuity is desired with the copy of the order thus furnished to him. The Treasury will be furnished by this office, along with the letter of authority, with particulars of the gratuitant for the purpose of identifying the person, who claims payment of the gratuity. On the identification being established, and on the gratuitant producing the copy of the Government Order, payment shall be made to him, or, if the gratuitant is dead at the time of payment, upon the receipt of the person legally entitled to receive the gratuity. The voucher on which payment is made should specify distinctly, the name of the gratuitant, the designation of the last appointment held by him, and the number and date of the Government Order sanctioning the gratuity. Printed forms of voucher for the purpose will be supplied by the Superintendent of Stationery, on Indent. Gratuities will not hereafter be paid to, or upon the receipt of the Heads of Offices or Department in which the gratuitants formerly served, and the submission by these officers of gratuity bills for pre-audit to this office will therefore be discontinued.
